Don't Let Your Husband Do This Any Longer

WHY should anyone in Louisville be bothered with dirty fuel, dirt, ashes and general discomfort of old fashioned heating? Cheap, clean, odorless natural gas is at your door.

Dealers are now installing gas furnaces, stoves and grates in unprecedented gas. Prices are reasonable; time payments if desired. Get your Heating Equipment ordered before the big rush.

LOUISVILLE GAS AND ELECTRIC

Telephone Main or City 2182

YOUR CASH SHOULD BE A SOURCE OF...

If deposited here your hands will receive interest, all the savings and accounts in a regular checking account, at the same time being subject to check at all the savings of many owners of corporations, firms and individuals are especially solicited.

WOMAN TRAILS NEGRO AUTO DRIVER FROM INDIANAPOLIS

Accused In Which Several Were Injured Followed By Wrecks and Arson

William Harris, a negro auto driver, who in the early part of September, following a family dispute, was murdered by an unknown man in Indianapolis, was last heard from by the police department in the west end of the city. The body was found in the vicinity of the river, and the name of the man who discovered it was D. R. King. The negro was found with the body, and the negro and two others were found dead in the same room. The negro was a native of the city, and the other negro was a negro who had been dead for several weeks.

DEATH CLAIMS WIFE OF LOUIS OBERDORFER

Mrs. Emma Oberdorfer, wife of Louis Oberdorfer, 45, of 430 W. Main St., Louisville, died at the home of her husband last night. The body was taken to the Oberdorfer home, and the funeral will take place at the Oberdorfer home at 10 a.m. tomorrow. The remains will be taken to the Oberdorfer home, and the funeral will take place at the Oberdorfer home at 10 a.m. tomorrow. The remains will be taken to the Oberdorfer home, and the funeral will take place at the Oberdorfer home at 10 a.m. tomorrow.
FUNERAL OF MISS HILL TO-MORROW MORNING

Funeral services for Miss Mary B. Hill, for many years identified with the Louisville Kindergarten as a teacher of music, who died of heart trouble early Saturday, will be held at 11 o'clock Monday morning in the chapel of the Second Presbyterian church, where the Rev. J. T. Thomas, of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the service.

Members of the old board of the Louisville Kindergarten will serve at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon and drafted resolutions of sympathy in the pretty girl's death at the end of Miss Hill. Burial will be in Cave Hill cemetery.

SAME FAMILY NAME.

(Boston Transcript).

An Irishman, on a railway carriage next a very pompous looking man, overheard a conversation in a rather free and easy manner, and thought it so interesting that he decided to ask the gentleman if he would have the kindness to allow him to join in. The gentleman would have you know that is a man of rank. The Irishman, after a little consideration, nodded assent and the conversation continued.

AN IDEAL UP-TO-DATE LAXATIVE.

Why is it "ideal and up to date"

Because of its entire simplicity. It is a binding, refreshing stomach salve and will make you feel like a new man. We will prove it by making a free trial bottle.

Address: John A. Fisher, 100 Arthur Peter St., N.

THE COURIER-JOURNAL, LOUISVILLE, MONDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 18, 1916

WRITING 10/04/2007 LIBRARY OF CONGRESS NEWSPAPER R M IN HENRY STREET