File 88307

ORDER

And now on this 1st day of February, A. D. 1939, comes ALLEN DAVY, administrator de bonis non with will annexed of the estate of said deceased and presents his petition praying that he be excused from giving security upon his bond as said administrator, and that he be excused from publishing and posting further notice for adjustment of claims against said estate and that he be authorized and directed to complete the administration of said estate without such publication and posting, or the setting of said date for the adjustment of such claims.

And the court having examined such petition and having heard the arguments of counsel for said petitioner and finding the allegations therein to be true and correct, and it appearing to the court that the assets of said estate to be administered are so small as to make the giving of security unnecessary and that in view of the length of time since decedent's death, of the previous publication and posting of notice of adjustment of claims and of the lack of value of the assets of said estate remaining unadministered, it is unnecessary that further publication and posting of notice of adjustment of claims be made,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by this court that:

1. Said ALLEN DAVY , administrator de bonis non with will annexed of said estate be and hereby is excused from ~~giving bond or security~~ ^{surety} on his personal bond for the faithful performance of his duties as such administrator.

2. That said ALLEN DAVY be excused from publishing and posting further notice of adjustment of claims against the estate of WILLIAM WALLACE HILL and that he shall complete the administration of said estate without such publication or posting or the setting of a date for adjustment of claims against said estate.

3. That said ALLEN DAVY , petitioner herein, shall complete the administration of said estate without further delay and as soon as may reasonably be done.
